- Special Rules of Order: Relate to rules for orderly transaction of business that differ from those contained in the adopted parliamentary authority.
- Rules of Order: Relate to orderly transaction of business. These are usually contained in the adopted parliamentary authority, which in ~~our~~ the LNC's case is the current edition (11th) of ~~Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised~~ Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised (RONR).

Section 1.05 OTHER SPECIAL APPROVAL PROCEDURES

1) Budget

The budget may be amended at any time by a majority vote of the LNC.³¹ However, the Executive Committee is authorized to amend expense items within one (1) budget area, as long as the total expense for that budget area is not increased.³²

4 parliamentary authority, sSpecial rRules of oOrder, bBylaws, the cCorporate cCharter and 5 any applicable procedural rule prescribed by federal, state, or local law, unless the rules in 6 such documents specifically provide for their own suspension.

11 of the LNCLibertarian National Committee. [BREAK OUT LIST] Suspension requires a

2 STAFF

3
4 1) Confidentiality

5
6 The officers, employees, agents, and members of the LNC shall not be personally liable for 7 any debt, liability, or obligation of the Party, unless caused by ~~his or her~~their breach of 8 confidentiality.
9

10 2) Conflict of Interest

11
12 Each LNC Member and each Party officer or employee shall disclose to the LNC situations in 13 which such person's own economic or other interests, or duties to others, might conflict with 14 the interests of the Party in the discharge of ~~his/her~~their duties. Any such disclosure shall be 15 made at the earliest opportune moment, prior to the discharge of such duties and clearly set 16 forth the details of the conflict of interest, in a written disclosure statement provided to the 17 Secretary. No LNC Member, Party officer, or employee shall: (a) transact business with the 18 Party unless the transaction is fair and equitable to the Party; or (b) use information gained in 19 the discharge of Party duties to the disadvantage of the Party.
20

21 The Secretary shall maintain a register of all declared potential conflicts of interest by LNC
22 members. This register will be presented and distributed to all LNC members at each regular 23 LNC meeting.
24

25 3) Employment Terms

26
27 Employment agreements shall require adherence to the ~~b~~Bylaws and policies adopted by the 28 LNC as a condition of employment.
29

30 Employment agreements shall specify in writing that registering as delegate to any national 31 party convention constitutes an immediate resignation of employment.
32

33 Employment agreements with bonus provisions must make the bonuses contingent on 34 objectively-measured achievements.
35

36 Employment agreements with bonus provisions based on revenues shall exclude convention
37 and bequest revenues.
38

39 Employment agreements with bonuses based on achievements during a period of time shall

41 eligible for the bonus.
42

43 Employment agreements shall include information about any obligations by the LNC to pay

Libertarian National Committee - Policy Manual Standing Rules

1
2 No employee of the Party shall be a member or alternate of the LNC or any bBylaws-
3 specified committee.³⁷ Any person employed by the Party shall be terminated immediately
4 upon ~~his or her~~their acceptance of election or appointment to the LNC or any bBylaws-
5 specified committee.

6
7 Except as otherwise authorized in this pPolicy mManual, no employee of the Party shall 8 endorse, support, or contribute any money, use his or her title or position, or work as a 9 volunteer, employee, or contractor to aid:

- 10 • any candidate for public office prior to nomination, or
- 11 • any candidate for Party office

12
13 This shall not preclude any Party employee from being a candidate for public office.
14

15 4) Harassment and Offensive Behavior Prohibition

16
17 The Libertarian Party is founded on the key principles of liberty, responsibility, and respect.
18 With that foundation, it is to be expected that libertarians treat each other with professional 19 respect, thoughtful consideration, and fundamental decency. Violation of this expectation by 20 members of the Party not only risks substantial legal penalties, it also undermines the very 21 legitimacy of the Party and the honor of its members. Violation of this expectation by 22 members of the LNC, whether towards other LNC Members or HQ staff, is therefore 23 especially egregious. To prevent such inappropriate behavior, the following standards must be 24 observed:
25

- 26 • All collective deprecation, whether alluding to sex, race, color, national origin, 27 disability, age, religion, or any other protected category, must be avoided. Every 28 person is a unique individual, and as the Libertarian Party is the Party of Individual
29 Liberty, this injunction should doubly apply.
30
- 31 • Sexual harassment, like other forms of harassment, is prohibited. Sexual harassment
32 includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors or any other conduct 33 of a sexual nature when: (1) submission to the conduct is made either implicitly or 34 explicitly a condition of employment; (2) submission to or rejection of the conduct is 35 used as the basis for an employment decision affecting the harassed employee; or (3) 36 the harassment has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with the 37 employee's work performance or creating an environment that is intimidating, hostile,
38 or offensive to the employee.
39
- 40 • Any behavior, whether verbal or physical, that clearly offends a reasonable person –
41 libertarian or not – must be avoided. Libertarianism is a philosophy of respect for the 42 individual, and must not be presented as being in harmony with behavior generally
43 regarded as offensive.
44
- 45 • Any interaction which might be interpreted as abusing the apparent employer-
46 employee relationship must be avoided. This applies to interactions of LNC

Libertarian National Committee - Policy Manual

Standing Rules

1 ~~m~~Members with staff, and is to be extended to interactions with any consultant hired
2 by the LNC.
3

4 ~~You~~ Each LNC and staff member must exercise ~~you're~~their own good judgment to avoid
5 any conduct that may be perceived by others as harassment. The following conduct could 6 constitute harassment:
7

- 8 • unwanted physical contact
- 9 • racial or sexual epithets
- 10 • derogatory slurs
- 11 • off-color jokes
- 12 • sexual innuendoes
- 13 • unwelcome comments about a person's body
- 14 • propositions
- 15 • leering
- 16 • unwanted prying into a person's private life
- 17 • graphic discussions about sexual matters
- 18 • suggestive behavior, sounds, gestures, or objects
- 19 • threats
- 20 • derogatory posters, pictures, cartoons, or drawings

21
22 As a rule of thumb, if ~~you~~ any LNC or staff member thinks it might be offensive, it probably 23 is.
24

25 Toward ensuring that all LNC Members are thoroughly familiar not only with this policy but 26 also the ramifications of it, they must participate in a standard program of exposure to the 27 issues raised by these concerns. The Chair is responsible to select the content of this training
28 program, in consultation with Counsel, and participation should be arranged at the earliest 29 practicable opportunity after the person becomes an LNC Member.
30

31 Any agreement that the LNC enters into with an affiliate must stipulate that the affiliate
32 incorporate the principles set forth in the policy.
33

34 Any violation of this policy should be brought to the attention of the Chair, or the Chair~~man~~
35 of the Judicial Committee. In response to every complaint, LNC will take prompt and 36 necessary steps to investigate the matter and will protect the individual's confidentiality, as 37 much as possible, recognizing the need to thoroughly investigate all complaints. The LNC
38 will take corrective and preventative actions where necessary. The LNC will not retaliate
39 against any individual who in good faith brings a complaint to the attention of the LNC or 40 participates in an investigation regarding a complaint. Any employee who violates this policy
41 is subject to discipline, up to and including discharge.
42

43 Violations of this policy may result in disciplinary action against the perpetrator.
44
45
46

1 Section 2.02 COMMITTEE SCOPE AND RESPONSIBILITIES

2
3 1) Committee Reports

4
5 At each regular LNC meeting, each committee created by the LNC will at minimum provide a
6 written report at least seven \(7\) days prior to the session noting the dates and attendance
7 rosters for each of their meetings since the previous regular LNC meeting.
8

9 2) Advertising & Publication Review Committee

10
11 The Advertising & Publication Review Committee \(APRC\) shall review and advise 12 whether public communications of the Party violate our bylaws, pPolicy mManual or 13 advocate moving public policy in a different direction other than a libertarian direction, as 14 delineated by the Party Platform.
15

16 Public communications may be defined in either of two \(2\) categories: time-sensitive or 17 enduring.
18

- 19 • Public communications that are of a time-sensitive nature, namely mass e-mails, news
20 releases, twitter posts, and blog entries, shall be made available to the APRC upon 21 their publication.
22
23 • Public communications that are of a more enduring nature, such as LP News, Liberty
24 Pledge News, self-published party literature, and fundraising letters, shall be made
25 available to the APRC before the final proof is approved for printing and distribution.
26

27 Staff may seek advance advice from the APRC on any proposed communication.
28

29 Staff may reasonably conclude that the failure of the APRC to provide advice in a timely
30 manner is tantamount to the committee's approval as follows:
31

- 32 • In the case of public communications that are of a time-sensitive nature, a response is 33 considered timely if made within six \(6\) hours of staff's submission of the subject
34 matter to the committee, if submitted prior to its publication; and within forty-eight 35 \(48\) hours, if submitted after its publication.
36
37 • In the case of public communications that are of a more enduring nature, a response is 38 considered timely if made within twenty-four \(24\) hours of staff's submission of the 39 subject matter to the committee.
40

41 If a majority of the committee concludes that a public communication violates the bylaws,
42 pPolicy mManual, or advocates moving public policy in a different direction other than a
43 libertarian direction, as delineated by the Party Platform, the committee chair shall report
44 such to the Executive Director and the LNC Chair, citing the specific platform plank, bylaw or 45 pPolicy mManual section. Official decisions of the APRC which are overridden shall be 46 promptly reported to the LNC without revealing confidential employer-employee matters.

Libertarian National Committee - Policy Manual Standing Rules

2 Communications between the APRC, staff, and the LNC Chair are in the nature of
3 confidential employer-employee communications. However, the APRC may by majority vote
4 agree to consult with other relevant individuals about matters which come before it,
5 conditioned upon the prior agreement by such individuals to maintain confidentiality of the 6 discussions. The LNC Chair in his bylaws-defined role as Chief Executive Officer of the 7 Party retains the sole right to discipline and discharge employees who repeatedly contravene
8 official party positions.
9

10 3) Affiliate Support Committee

11
12 For any affiliate not in a region, the Vice-Chair will serve the same intermediary role that 13 Regional Representatives serve for the affiliates in their respective regions.
14

15 The Affiliate Support Committee (ASC) shall identify the needs and interests of the various 16 affiliates. In addition, the ASC shall identify those affiliates that are in particular need of 17 assistance that the LNC can provide.
18

19 The ASC shall deliver a report to the LNC for the last LNC meeting of each calendar year,
20 identifying and prioritizing those needs and interests of the various affiliates. This ranked list 21 shall be taken into consideration when drawing up the following year's budget, and 22 throughout the year as needed. This list will also assist the Executive Director in deciding how 23 to assign tasks to staff, by identifying those services that staff provides to the affiliates that are 24 the most desired.
25

26 The ASC shall also, ~~as and~~ when needed, recommend to the LNC measures that will address
27 the particular affiliates that need assistance from the LNC.
28

29 The ASC will also establish a process for tracking the progress in meeting those needs.
30

31 4) Audit Committee³⁸

36 the audit results and assist the latter in preparing any action plans that might be needed to 37 alleviate deficiencies.
38

39 5) Awards Committee

ENDNOTES

¹ Other terms defined in the Bylaws may also be included in this document.

³ Normally, alternates may only fill vacancies, not absences. However, Bylaw Article 7.1 authorizes the LNC to delegate its authority to others, otherwise only members could participate in meetings. In the absence of this rule, the only role for alternates would be voting in mail ballots, in accordance with Bylaw Article 13.

⁴ In the absence of this rule, RONR p. 459 states that the Secretary would be responsible for preparing “prior to each meeting an order of business for the use of the presiding officer, showing in their exact order, under the correct headings, all matters known in advance that are due to come up and—~~if applicable—~~the times for which they are set.”

Note: RONR p. 82 defines session as a “meeting or series of connected meetings devoted to a single order of business, program, agenda or announced purpose, in which—when there is more than one \(1\) meeting—each succeeding meeting is scheduled with a view to continuing business at the point where it was left off at the previous meeting.”

⁵ LNC is delegating its authority in accordance with Bylaw Article 7.1, which states “The National Committee may delegate its authority in any manner it deems necessary.” In the absence of this rule, all authority would be retained by the LNC.

⁶ RONR p.598–599 authorizes an assembly to delegate technical changes of documents, provided they do not change the meaning. In the absence of this Rule, virtually all changes would require a vote of the LNC.

⁷ There are two \(2\) divisions of main motions, original main motions and incidental main motions. See RONR pp.100–102.

⁸ In the absence of this rule, the procedure for providing previous notice is as described in RONR on pp.121–124, and varies depending on whether there is more than a quarterly time interval between meetings. In the case where there is no more than a quarterly time interval between meetings, the announcement must be made at the previous meeting. In the case where more than a quarterly time interval exists between meetings, the member gives notice to the Secretary, who sends it out with the call of the meeting.

In the absence of this rule, previous notice would not require the full text of the motion or resolution, only an accurate and complete statement of purport.

Note: RONR p. 82 defines session as a “meeting or series of connected meetings devoted to a single order of business, program, agenda or announced purpose, in which—when there is more than one \(1\) meeting—each succeeding meeting is scheduled with a view to continuing business at the point where it was left off at the previous meeting.”

Endnotes

Note: A motion to adopt, amend or rescind a special rule of order requires either (a) a two-thirds \(2/3\) vote with previous notice or (b) a vote of a majority of the entire membership of the Libertarian National Committee. See RONR, p. 17 lines 28–31, p. 87 line 33—p. 88 line 5, p. 265 lines 19–23, p. 390 lines 13–15.

⁹ In the absence of this rule, we would follow the default of order of business as described in RONR beginning p. 353.

¹⁰ In the absence of this rule, changing the order of the agenda requires amending something previously adopted, which requires a two-thirds 2/3 vote or a majority of the entire membership of the LNC or unanimous consent. See RONR p. 373.

¹¹ In the absence of this rule, Roberts requires a suspension of the rules (two-thirds \(2/3\) vote) to allow a nonmember to speak in debate. See RONR p. 263 footnote.

¹² RONR on p. 96 states “A member can be punished under disciplinary procedures if he violates the secrecy of an executive session. Anyone else permitted to be present is honor-bound not to divulge anything that occurred.”

¹³ In the absence of this rule, the LNC could enter executive session for any reason with only a majority vote, and there would be no such content requirements for the motion to enter executive session. RONR p. 95 states that “a motion to go into executive session is a question of privilege, and therefore is adopted by a majority vote.”

¹⁴ In the absence of this rule, it would only require a majority vote rather than a two-thirds \(2/3\) vote to enter executive session for these reasons. RONR p. 95 states that “a motion to go into executive session is a question of privilege, and therefore is adopted by a majority vote.”

¹⁵ In the absence of this rule, action can be taken in executive session. RONR on p. 96 states, “the minutes, or record of proceedings, of an executive session must be read and acted upon only in executive session, unless that which would be reported in the minutes – that is, the action taken, as distinct from that which was said in debate—was not secret, or secrecy has been lifted by the assembly.”

¹⁶ In the absence of this rule, a motion would be required before allowing debate. RONR p. 34 “Unless the assembly has specifically authorized that a particular subject be discussed while no motion is pending, however, such a discussion can be entered into only at the sufferance of the chair or until a point of order is made...”

¹⁷ In the absence of this rule, this action of making public these minutes would be made in executive session. RONR on p. 96 states, “the minutes, or record of proceedings, of an executive session must be read and acted upon only in executive session, unless that which would be reported in the minutes— that is, the action taken, as distinct from that which was said in debate—was not secret, or secrecy has been lifted by the assembly.”

Endnotes

In addition, under RONR, lifting secrecy is a regular motion requiring only a majority vote, so any requirement for a two-thirds \(2/3\) vote is more burdensome.

¹⁸ In the absence of this rule, the minutes would not reflect who was absent from an Executive Session. See RONR beginning at p. 468 for the contents of minutes.

¹⁹ In the absence of this rule, this information may not violate the secrecy of Executive Session. RONR on p. 96 states “A member can be punished under disciplinary procedures if he violates the secrecy of an executive session. Anyone else permitted to be present is honor-bound not to divulge anything that occurred.”

²⁰ In the absence of this rule, lifting secrecy would require only the consent of the LNC. RONR on p. 96 states, “the minutes, or record of proceedings, of an executive session must be read and acted upon only in executive session, unless that which would be reported in the minutes—that is, the action taken, as distinct from that which was said in debate—was not secret, or secrecy has been lifted by the assembly.”

²¹ In the absence of this rule, the minutes would not reflect disclosed conflicts of interest. See RONR beginning at p. 468 for the contents of minutes.

²² Robert's RONR recommends against attempting to conduct business by electronic email, as it does not constitute a deliberative assembly and will result in many situations unprecedented in parliamentary law, and many rules and customs of parliamentary law cannot be applied. See RONR footnote on p. 1 and also p. 98 lines 14–19.

²³ In the absence of this rule, each day's minutes would be approved at the beginning of the next day of the session and the final day's minutes would be approved before the final adjournment, unless the body authorizes the executive board or a committee to approve the minutes at a later time. See RONR p. 473–475.

²⁴ In the absence of this rule, minutes would only be accessible by members of the Executive Committee. RONR p. 460 lines 13–20 states “Any member has a right to examine these reports and the record book(s) referred to on p. 459, lines 13–16 including the minutes of an executive session, at a reasonable time and place, but this privilege must not be abused to the annoyance of the secretary. The same principle applies to records kept by boards and committees, these being accessible to members of the boards or committees but to no others (but see p. 487, ll. 13–20).”

²⁵ In the absence of this rule, each day's minutes would be approved at the beginning of the next day of the session and the final day's minutes would be approved before the final adjournment, unless the body authorizes the executive board or a committee to approve the minutes at a later time. See RONR p. 473–475.

²⁶ In the absence of this rule and Bylaw Article 9.2, the LNC would select the committee sizes, select the committee members, and would have the option of appointing the committee chairs. See RONR p. 492, lines 13–2.

Libertarian National Committee - Policy Manual

Endnotes

²⁷ Bylaw Article 9.2 requires a standing Audit Committee and specifies the details noted in the “size” and “member selection” columns of this table. In the absence of this row, the non-officer LNC members would have the option of appointing the committee chair. See RONR p. 492, lines 20–22.

²⁸ In the absence of this rule, the term of office of a special committee would expire when the assigned task is completed and the committee reported back to the assembly (see RONR p. 492 lines 3–7), except that in a board the special committee would expire with the body that appointed it (see RONR p. 502 lines 31–35). Standing committees are appointed for a term corresponding to that of the officers, but the members of standing committees continue their duties until their successors are chosen (see RONR p. 502 lines 14–25).

³⁰ RONR p. 1 footnote states: “A group that attempts to conduct the deliberative process in writing—such as by postal mail, electronic mail (e-mail), or facsimile transmission (fax)—does not constitute a deliberative assembly. When making decisions by such means, many situations unprecedented in parliamentary law will arise, and many of its rules and customs will not be applicable (see also pp. 97–99).

³¹ In the absence of this rule, without notice, the LNC can amend this with a two-thirds \(2/3\) vote or a majority of the entire board; or with notice, the LNC can amend with a majority vote. See RONR, p. 306.

³² LNC is delegating its authority. In the absence of this rule, such an amendment would require LNC approval.

³³ LNC is delegating its authority. In the absence of this rule, such an amendment would require LNC approval.

³⁴ LNC is delegating its authority. In the absence of this rule, such an amendment would require LNC approval.

³⁵ In the absence of this rule, a majority vote of the LNC would be sufficient to grant an honorary life membership. Note that honorary life memberships do not confer status as a sustaining member.

³⁶ See RONR, p. 264 line 29–p. 265 line 7.

³⁷ Current Bylaws-specified committees include Judicial, Bylaws and Rules, Platform, and Credential Committees.

³⁸ This policy assigns some tasks to the Audit Committee in addition to those specified in Bylaw Article 9.2.

Libertarian National Committee - Policy Manual Endnotes

³⁹ In the absence of this rule, the committee could not begin its work until all of its members were named (see RONR p. 496 lines 8–11).

⁴⁰ The term “fixed membership” is defined in the footnote on RONR p. 403.

⁴¹ Note that the D.C. corporation code requires board approval to open a bank account.

⁴² Bylaws Article 9.4 states, “The National Committee shall have the power to designate the depository of all funds of the Party, and shall appoint such officers and employees as in its judgment may seem advisable to deposit and withdraw funds.” The National Committee is delegating its authority here in accordance with Bylaws Article 7.1.

⁴³ In the event that a budget is not adopted by the LNC, Bylaws Article 9.1 authorizes the Treasurer to spend money using the previous year’s budget. “The fiscal term of the Party shall begin on January 1 of each year. From January 1 until the National Committee has approved a budget, the Treasurer may authorize expenditures for any item incorporated in the previous year’s budget as long as the level of expenditure is consistent with that budget.”

⁴⁴ Authorized by Bylaw Article 6.6.

⁴⁵ Authorized by Bylaw Article 6.6.

⁴⁶ This policy is derived from and serves as an interpretation of Bylaw Article 9.5.

⁴⁷ Authorized by Bylaw Article 4.2.

⁴⁸ Qualifications for sustaining membership are defined by Bylaw Article 4.4.

⁴⁹ In the absence of this rule there is no requirement in RONR to send such documents in advance. RONR p. 459 states that the Secretary is responsible for preparing “prior to each meeting, an order of business for the use of the presiding officer, showing in their exact order, under the correct headings, all matters known in advance that are due to come up and—if applicable—the times for which they are set.”

RONR p. 372 states that a proposed agenda is not binding. “In some organizations, it is customary to send each member, in advance of a meeting, an order of business or agenda, with some indication of the matters to be considered under each heading. Such an agenda is often provided for information only, with no intention or practice of submitting it for adoption. Unless a pre-circulated agenda is formally adopted at the session to which it applies, it is not binding as to detail or order of consideration, other than as it lists preexisting orders of the day (pp. 364ff.) or conforms to the standard order of business (pp. 25–26, 353ff.) or an order of business prescribed by the rules of the organization (pp. 16, 25).”

It requires a simple majority for the LNC to adopt an agenda (RONR p. 372).

⁵⁰ Robert’s RONR recommends against attempting to conduct business by electronic email, as it does not constitute a deliberative assembly and will result in many situations
